

11/1 – Take out your completed data sheet and create a Bumper Sticker for your independent reading book that captures the essence of your book.

(Your bumper sticker should convey something that one would not know after only reading the title and the back of the book.)

This Week

Monday	Tuesday	Wed.	Thursday	Friday
- Heart of Darkness Feedback. - Pass out midterm passages. - Finish watching Apocalypse Now Redux. -Drew Villager: Case Study	On the Fence. Multiple choice practice. Read Hamlet	Work Day	Midterm	Midterm Portfolio is Due. Poet Report Due. Hamlet Discussion #1.

Today's Agenda

1. HOD Feedback
2. Midterm/Midterm Prep
3. Polonius Letters (Due Friday)
4. I AM HAMLET???
5. Apocalypse Now Redux (finish)
6. Drew Villager Case Study

Drew Villager: A Case Study

Part I

I am going to tell you a story of Drew Villager. As I tell you this story, take notes on what I am saying.

Part II

Write a brief analysis in which you analyze what is going on with Drew and what you see as his prognosis.

11/2

Responses

On the Fence

- ❖ It is important to have a good relationship with your parents.
- ❖ We owe a debt to our parents.
- ❖ Adultery is always wrong.
- ❖ There is an afterlife.
- ❖ Ghosts are real.
- ❖ Revenge is appropriate.
- ❖ Suicide is always wrong.
- ❖ Murder is always wrong.
- ❖ Insanity is a subjective term.
- ❖ It is very important to think before you act.

Multiple Choice Practice

Read the passage from Their Eyes Are Watching God.

Then, indicate what type of multiple-choice question is being asked.

Finally, respond to each question in a few words or a phrase.

1 1/3

Work Day

11/4

Midterm